FIND Outdoors Now Taking Reservations for Cherryfield Creek Luxury Group Campground

Brevard, NC – FIND Outdoors, one of Brevard’s longest-running specialists in nature-based education and recreation is now taking reservations for Cherryfield Creek Luxury Group Campground just outside of downtown Brevard, NC.

Featuring a pristine creek and private waterfall bordering beautiful Pisgah National Forest, this rustic but luxurious one-of-a-kind camping spot provides an idyllic venue for weddings, retreats, parties or reunions in one of the most sought-after vacation spots in North Carolina. The property is owned by local businessman and FIND Outdoors partner, Josh Leder, who grew up exploring the peaks and valleys of western NC as a child.

Says Natalie Britt, Executive Director of FIND Outdoors, “This location couldn’t be more perfect for comfort, elegance and outdoor recreation. We’re positioned between one of the best paddling destinations in the state in Headwaters Outfitters on one side and downtown Brevard on the other.” Britt concluded, “You won’t find an experience like this anywhere else.”

Boasting four large covered tent pavilions and two spacious, immaculate bath houses, the site couldn’t be better suited for anyone looking for a combination of both natural recreation, rustic luxury and privacy. Campers will be greeted by large grassy gathering spots that serve as an additional space to the bathhouses, complete with fire pits, a large party-style grill and two large swings begging to help you ease the burden of life’s challenges. Inside each bath house are large walk-in showers, heated floors and elegant décor meant to mimic the nicest B&B in your favorite tourist destination.

“The finishing touches to the property are in the safety and comfort of knowing you have a large bathhouse with four separate bathrooms and two large showers at your discretion,” explains Judy Doyle, Director of Campgrounds. “You’ll have complete, private and coded access to this area included in your stay.”
To top it off, FIND Outdoors is committed to making sure that your family or party is experiencing the Pisgah National Forest and surrounding community in the most secluded and private group camping experience anywhere. Says Doyle, “Our guests will enjoy an attention to detail in the campground amenities while being surrounded by beauty and majesty that only western North Carolina can provide. It all goes hand in hand.”

If you’d like more information on the area, campground or how to register, please call Judy Doyle at 828-884-FIND x200 or email her at judy@gofindoutdoors.org.
